IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY
ORDINARY ORIGINAL CIVIL JURISDICTION

JUDGES ORDER NO.177 OF 2007
IN
GUARDIAN PETITION NO.145 OF 1992.

Jay Prakash Kadedin Singh ..Petitioner
And Manorama Rajkaran Singh ..Applicant

Mr.R.J.Rajbhar for Applicant

Coram : S.R.Sathe, J.
Dated : 23rd April, 2007

P.C.

1. Heard learned Advocate for the applicant. He submits that the amount of minor is required as the marriage of the minor, who has now completed 19 years of age is settled and is to take place on 12.5.2007 and as such the Accounts Officer be directed to pay the amount of minor to the guardian.

2. The guardian as well as the minor present in the court. The minor girl Manorama submits that her mmariage is settled with Rajendra Singh and is to take place on 12.5.2007 at Newadkala, Post: Pureguru, Dist: Pratapgad (U.P.). The petitioner has produced on record Marriage invitation card (Exhibit D). Both of them i.e.guardian and minor have filed affidavit stating therein that the amount of Rs.38,692/- is required to meet the marriage expenses of Manorama. The guardian submits that the amount if received will be utilised only to meet the marriage expenses of Manorama. From the chool Certificate it appears that minor has completed age of 19 years. Hence, I pass the following order.

ORDER

. The Accounts Officer, High Court, Mumbai is directed to hand over the amount of Rs.38,692/- together with the interest acrued thereon to the petitioner guardian Jay Prakash Kadedin Singh.

. The amount is given on condition that the same must be utilised to meet the marriage expenses of the minor Manorama Rajkaran Singh.

. Judges Order disposed of accordingly.
